

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With Your Kids

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: BLACK BRICKS

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

The disciples were scared while Jesus was on trial. Peter was so scared he pretended not to know Jesus. If we give our fears to God, he will give us the strength to stand up for him. Kids will learn to ask God for the strength to do the right thing even when it's hard.

Mark 14:66-72, Peter Denies Knowing Jesus

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Share a time when you had to stand up and do the right thing, or stand up for your faith. How did you find the courage to do what was right?

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Why did Peter deny knowing Jesus three times?
- Is it easy or hard for you to stand up for what's right with your friends?
- Why do we need to give our fears to God when we're afraid?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8 (NIV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

Jesus is counting on us to share our faith, in words and in actions. That means doing the right thing when no one else will, and speaking up for Jesus. Ask God to give you and your kids the courage to be bold and stand up for what you believe.
